

YOU ARE HOME

Words and Music by R.Krasny ©1996

Feel the sacred hoop of life
Surround you in its peaceful glow
Knowin' that the journey
Is a perfect path
It is safe to love and laugh...
And grow... and know.

So, follow your heart
And listen to the dream
The songs of the forest,
The wisdom of the eagle
The dance of the butterflies
On the whispers of the wind
The rhythm of the sacred drum,
The heartbeat of the mother earth
Beats within your own

You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home ... (you are home)...
You are home...

Feed yourself and cleanse your soul.
Damned up tears await their release.
The waters will run pure again
When stagnant feelings flow again
In peace....

You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home ... (you are home)...
You are home...

Follow the rainbow's sign of hope.
Glistening colors of water and light,
Expand to remind us,

Inspire us and guide us
To lift our thoughts, ascend,
Take flight...

You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home ... (you are home)
You are home...

So, follow your heart
And listen to the Dream
The songs of the forest,
The laughter of the children
The dance of the butterflies
On the whispers of the wind
The rhythm of the sacred drum
The heartbeat of the mother earth
Beats within your own.

You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home...

Father Sky and Mother Earth
All my Family great and small
A prayer sings through my heart and my voice
That love and peace
Will fill and heal us all...

You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home ... (you are home) ...
You are home....
You... are... Home...
